OPEN-HOLE FLUTES

For advancing players, an open-hole flute offers precise control over pitch, clarity of sound, and improved responsiveness. These instruments offer more than just open-hole keys, though. You're getting high-quality silver construction, an extended B-footjoint, advanced key functionality and more.

Popular Models

Yamaha 577: $3,059⁹⁹

Bravo! Rent-to-Own: $107⁰⁰/mo

WOOD CLARINETS

Wood clarinets offer greater control over intonation and pitch. The grenadilla used in these instruments creates a rich timbre that advancing players prefer but might not be able to achieve on a plastic instrument.

Popular Models

Yamaha 550 Allegro: $1,790⁰⁰

Bravo! Rent-to-Own: $66⁵⁰/mo

Yamaha 62III: $3,248⁹⁹

Bravo! Rent-to-Own: $114⁵⁰/mo

SILVER TRUMPETS

Silver plating offers a crisp response and widens the tonal range of the instrument. Other changes, such as the reduced wall thickness and refined brass composition, allow players to quickly expand their dynamic range and continue to reach higher notes with less strain.

Popular Models

Yamaha 5335 Allegro: $1,727⁰⁰
